

Linda A. Hurwitz Named Associated Chair of the Board

The Associated: Jewish Community Federation of Baltimore has announced that it has named Linda A. Hurwitz as its Chair of the Board. Hurwitz, who begins her two-year term on July 1, will focus on planning and budgeting, fund development and leadership development.

Hurwitz, whose involvement with The Associated extends more than 30 years, has served in a number of leadership capacities with the organization. She was the 2009 Campaign Chair, Young Women's Leadership Chair and the Women's Department Campaign Chair. She was also the founding co-chair of the Baltimore-Ashkelon Partnership.

In addition, over the years she has been involved in Jewish philanthropy at the national level, serving as National Campaign Chair of the Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA) and former president and past chair of National Women's Philanthropy (NWP).

"Linda has always brought such enthusiasm and intelligence to her leadership roles at The Associated, and we look forward to her guidance during the next two years," says Marc B. Terrill, president of The Associated.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Duke University in Education, Hurwitz earned a Master's degree from The Johns Hopkins University in Administration and Supervision of Education. A mother of three, she currently lives in Pikesville.
